

Name of the candidate:

Reference Number:

Dear

We have received this resume for an appropriate faculty position. Can you please look at this resume and comment on the suitability, and return back to Ms. Anuradha within a week's time?

Regards

Chair, Faculty Search

-
1. Strength (primarily academic) based on the resume [1-10]:

Example scale: 10 = A rare and exceptional candidate. 8 = Well above IIIT average. 6 = May be above IIIT average. 4 = Just below IIIT average. 2 = Not very impressive

2. Appropriateness to IIIT (based on area of expertise) [1-10]:

Example scale: 10 = Desperately need. 8 = Worth to have. 6 = May have if the group/center needs. 4 = May not be required. 2 = Not very appropriate (even if area is good)

3. Appropriateness to IIIT (based on other parameters) (optional) [1-10]:

If you have any non-academic inputs that need to be kept in mind, please fill here, 10 being the best.

4. Recommendation: Call for Interview [1-10]:

Example scale: 10 = Sure; Must call. 8 = Good candidate. Worth calling. 6 = May call. 4 = May not call. 2 = Don't call

5. Other specific recommendations before calling for Interview (please write below) (optional)

Eg. 1. Keep it on hold; let us wait for three months. 2. Promising resume; not yet ready; let us ask to apply after a postdoc/degree.

6. Other comments: (please comment on the compatibility/utility to our (i) teaching programs (ii) complementary and supplementary expertise to our research activities (iii) capability to build own group and prosper (iv) possibility to connect to existing individuals and groups etc.)